is a peer-reviewed biannual periodical in philosophy. The issues of our journal are available both in print and online. All articles are blind-refereed. The journal publishes contributions of the Polish and international scholars in the field.

We publish papers in English, German and Polish in the following sections:

1. Articles and Treatises
2. Polemics, Debates and Interviews
3. Translations into Polish
4. Teaching Philosophy
5. Reviews, Notes and Reports
6. Obituaries and Memories
7. Announcements and Invitations

The Editors of the journal invite scholarly studies in History of Philosophy as well as the papers reporting the on-going debates in Contemporary Philosophy, representing various currents in philosophical inquiry, including continental, analytic and non-Western traditions and comparative perspectives. We also publish polemical papers, responses and interviews, book reviews and notices from professional philosophers. Besides we are open to critical and innovative suggestions concerning teaching methods and the purposes of up-to-date philosophical education.
FORMAT GUIDELINES

The prospective authors are kindly asked to conform to the following guidelines:

The languages accepted for publication are English, German and Polish.

Articles submitted for publication in ARGUMENT should be addressed to argument.journal@gmail.com

In order that manuscripts may be blind-reviewed (i.e. read in ignorance of authorship), we request that names of authors and their institutional affiliations not appear on manuscripts or the electronic copy.

The list of references (full bibliography), including both the primary and secondary sources, should be enclosed at the end of the paper.

A brief abstract of approx. 200 words at the beginning of the paper is required, as well as a few keywords.

Do attach in a separate file one-paragraph author’s bio-note (academic degree, affiliation, main interests and titles of recent publications etc.), and author’s current postal address.

All contributions should be written in MS-Word; Font: Times New Roman, 12 point (for the main text) and 10 point (for the footnotes); spacing: 1.5 for the main text, or 1.0 for the footnotes and for extended quotations, which should be inset and single-spaced. Full justification; one inch margins on all sides. Turn off the hyphenation option in your software to avoid end-of-line hyphens.

The articles should not exceed a word limit of 8,000 including footnotes.

Book Reviews should not be longer than 2,000 words.

More instructions and details of the reviewing procedure available at our website: www.argument-journal.eu
